

13 SAMPSON AVENUE
MADISON, NEW JERSEY

June 7.

Dear Allison,

I hope you will not hold too much against for not being able to keep my appointment for the theatre tonight. A sudden demand for some extra work, in addition to the regular work of the end of the term prevents my coming. However Mrs. Sumner and my daughter expect to be there to see and to hear your production. May I extend my "Best Wishes" in this way.

Yours truly,
W. J. Drum.
